

Contents

FOREWORD
Tim Bond, University of Bristol
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	9
PREFACE: EPILOGUE FOR PAULA	II
Introduction	13
Kim Etherington, University of Bristol
1. A wounded healer: From client to counsellor	33
Heather Goodare, Cancer Counsellor
2. Palliative care counselling: Emotional and psychological support from diagnosis to death	49
Kate Kirk and Maria Lever, Salford Palliative Care Counselling Service
3. Working in general practice with somatisation of childhood sexual abuse	65
Sue Santi Ireson, GP Counsellor, Personal Relationship and Groupwork Division, British Association for Counselling and Psychotherapy
4. Working as a counsellor in an NHS multidisciplinary team	95
Julia Segal, North West London Hospitals NHS Trust
5. Counselling children and their families in intensive care	109
Penny Cook, Family Liaison Sister, Addenbrooke's Hospital, Cambridge

6. 'Awkward' clients and 'awkward' topics:
Young people and sexual health	125
Caroline Stedman, Counsellor, Brooke Advisory Clinic
7. Counselling people living with HIV/AIDS	141
Pete Connor, University of Bristol and Terrence Higgins Trust West
8. Working with people with fertility problems:
A counsellor's personal experience	161
Gill Woodbridge, Counsellor, Private Practice and NHS Settings
9. Riding the rollercoaster: A personal account of being counselled about fertility	175
Helen Boxer, Service User
10. Cut, burn and poison: A personal account of breast cancer	191
Rosie Jeffries, Student Counsellor, University of the West of England
11. Challenges of counselling in psychiatric settings	209
Rachel Freeth, Psychiatrist, Person-Centred Counsellor
12. Integrating counselling within the mental health services	227
Karl Gregory, University of Bristol, Private Practice and NHS Settings
13. Traing and supervision issues for counsellors
working in health settings	247
Kim Etherington, University of Bristol
CONTRIBUTORS	273
SUBJECT INDEX	276
AUTHOR INDEX	284