

Contents

Foreword	Hi
Acknowledgements	vii
Contributors	ix
Publisher's Note	xiii

1. Introduction	3
• Why This Book	6
• Literature Review	9
• Watson's Methodologies	10
• Nomenclature, Method and Methodology	15
• The Different Methods and Their Classification	16
• Method at the Coalface of Homeopathy
- A Personal Story	17
• Flexibility with Principle	21
• Culture, Football and Buddhism	22
• What Authors Say, What They Do, and Change over Time	24
2. Hahnemann, Bonninghausen and the Totality of Characteristic Symptoms of the Disease	29
• Totality of the Characteristic Symptoms of the Disease	31
• Samuel Hahnemann 1755-1843	33

• Hahnemann in Paris	42
• His Cases / How He Practiced	44
• Cases Illustrative of Homeopathic Practice	45
• Some other cases	53
• Underpinnings of Hahnemannian Homeopathy	57
• Peculiarity	57
• Totality	58
• Causation	59
• Health	59
• Disease	61
• Cure	61
• von Bonninghausen 1785-1864	62
• Complete Symptom	63
• The Therapeutic Pocketbook	65
• Cases	66
• Disadvantages of the Method	69
• Advantages of the Method	71
• Method in Epidemic Diseases	* 73
• Further Reading	76
3. Kent and the Totality of the Characteristics of the Person	77
• The Person not the Disease	79
• Totality of the Characteristics of the Person	80
• James Tyler Kent, 1849-1916	82
• Kent's Legacy	84
• Swedenborg	86
• What Is Disease?	90
• Kentianism	92
• Kent's Other Influences on Homeopathy	95
• Repertory	95
• Types	96
• Books	96

Contents	xvii
• Potency and Remedies	96
• Waiting and Waiting	97
• Kent's Hierarchy	97
• The Mind	98
• Kent's Case Work	100
• Subtle Changes	106
• Case Examples	107
• Strategy	109
• Further Reading	110
4. Constitution and Constitutional Prescribing	111
• Introduction	113
• The Confusion	114
• The Prescribing Style in a Nutshell	116
• The Disadvantages of Constitutional Prescribing	118
• Kent, Watson and Constitution	119
• Massive Totality	121
• Limitations	121
• Definitions of Constitution	125
• Etymology of the Word 'Constitution' in the Context of Homeopathy	127
• Advocates of Constitutional Prescribing	129
• Hydrogenoid Constitution	135
• From von Grauvogl's practice	135
• Oxygenoid	144
• Carbo-nitrogenoid Constitution	145
• From von Grauvogl's Practice	146
• Lesser and Nebel	149
• Carbonic	151
• Phosphoric	152
• Flouric	152
• Vannier's Constitution and Types	152
• Constitutional Prescribing in Light of a True Understanding of Constitution	155

• Ingredients Needed for a Constitutional Prescription	160
• Mappa Mundi and Temperaments	163
• Little on the Phlegmatic Temperament	167
• The Temperament of the Phlegmatic	168
• Phlegmatic Bodily Constitution (Generals)	170
• Phlegmatic Predispositions (Diathesis and Miasms)	172
• Phlegmatic Remedies	174
• Conclusions	175
• Of Practical Use	177
• Further Reading	179
5. Vital Sensation Shilpa Bhouraskar	181
• Introduction	185
• The Evolution of Homeopathy in Stages	188
• Comparison of Stages, Disease and Medicine Understanding	193
• Application of the Stages in Practice Confirm Your Prescription Through All the Four Stages	193
• A Case Example Incorporating All Stages	194
• Which Approach to Use and When	212
• The Sensation Method Compared With the Earlier Methods	215
• Conclusion	218
• Further Reading	218
6. Miasmatic Prescribing Jennifer Osborne	219
• The Use of Nosodes	219
• The use of anti-miasmatic remedies	220
• Faithfulness in Tracing the Picture of the Disease	225
• What Is Miasmatic Prescribing?	230
• Nosodes as the Simillimum and Intercurrents	230

Smnts	xx
• Other Application of Intercurrents	234
• Other Benefits of a Knowledge and Understanding of Miasms	236
• References	240
• Further Reading	242
7. Jan Scholten's Group Analysis Greg Cope	243
• JanScholten	247
• Group Analysis	249
• Reverse Law of Similars	251
• Homeopathy and the Minerals	251
• Homeopathy and the Elements	255
• The Plant Kingdom	260
• Prescribing Techniques	261
• Case example	263
• References	269
• Further Reading	270
&. Eizayaga Ben Gadd	271
• Introduction	275
• About Eizayaga	278
• Treating the Patient versus Treating the Disease	279
• Different Types of Similitude	280
• Totality of Symptoms	282
• Classification of Symptoms	284
• Classification of Diseases	285
• Layers	287
• Lesion Layer	287
• Fundamental Layer	289
• Constitutional Layer	290
• Miasmatic Layer	293
• Prescribing	294
• Posology	295
• Repertory	296

• Criticisms of Eizayaga's Approach	297
• Case Example	298
• Conclusion	303
• References and Further Reading	304
9. Keynote Prescribing	307
• Definitions	309
• Keynote Materia Medica's	310
• Why Keynote Prescribing at All?	311
• Misapplication	313
• History and Development of Keynote Prescribing	314
• The Components of the Method	316
Totality Again	316
• Red-line Symptoms	317
• Will Taylor and Meg Ryan - Practical Keynote Prescribing	318
• What are the Characteristic Features of a Keynote?	320
• The 'Three-legged Stool' Approach to Keynotes	321
• Storming the Fortress / Achieving Break-through at the Weak Spots	322
• 'Minimum Syndrome of Maximum Value'	323
• Experts at Work - a Few More Examples	324
• Analogous Parts	328
• Ruling Features of the Case Reflect the 'Genius' of the Remedy	328
• Other Leading Proponents	332
• Advantages of Keynote Prescribing	339
• Disadvantages of Keynote Prescribing	342
• Further Reading	344
10. Isopathy	345
• Definitions	348
• Introduction	348
• Practicalities	350

• Context	351
• Isopathy and Pre-Homeopathic History	352
• Advocates	357
• The Response to Isopathy	361
• Collet and Others	364
• The Controversy	365
• Refining the Method	379
• Advantages and Some Extraordinary Examples	380
• Conclusion	385
• Further Reading	385
• Appendix	387
XL Tautopathy	397
• Definition	400
• What Exactly Is the Method?	400
• Why Do We Need It?	402
• Review of the Literature	404
• Application of Tautopathy	417
• The Pill, Naprosyn and Cortisone and Vaccinations	418
• Intercurrent Prescribing	419
• Case Examples - Patel	420
• Who Uses It Today and Research	422
• Limitations	423
• Provings and Tautopathy	423
• Further Reading	424
• Appendix	425
VL Organ Prescribing, Organopathy and Burnett	429
• Introduction	432
• Background	432
• Affinity, Organ Prescribing, Organopathy, Supporting the Organs	434
• Specificity of Seat	435

• Locality	439
• The Limitations of the Totality of Symptoms'	443
• Drilling Deeper: Burnett's Influences	446
• Rademacher and the Organ Remedies	447
• Burnett's Cases	449
• Burnett's Use of Potency	454
• The Organ Remedies	455
• Random Gems from Burnett, Rademacher and Others	456
• Nosodes	459
• For and Against	460
• Computers and Burnett	462
• Burnett's Works	462
• Conclusion	463
• Further Reading	466
13. Polypharmacy, Complexes and Combinations	467
• Definitions	469
• Literature and Opinion	469
• Controversy, Mongrelism, Multilation and Perversion	470
• The Double Remedy Experiments of 1833	472
• The Technique Itself	487
• Why NO! Opinions Past and Present	489
• Contemporary Opposition	501
• Why Yes! Opinions - Past and Present	509
• Some Commonly Used Combinations	510
• When Is it Best to Use Polypharmacy?	514
• Further Reading	516
14. Conclusion	519
• Method and Totality	519
• If You Meet Hahnemann on the Road, Kill Him	526
• The Influence of Hahnemann	527

C m c s	xxiii
• The Implications of Individualism in Homeopathy	532
• Teachers in Contemporary Homeopathy	537
• Method or No Method	539
• Implications for Practice	543
References	545
infer	559