

CONTANTS

Preface.....	iv
1. Introduction.....	9
2. Compilation of M.M. and the Organon.....	11
3. Changing perceptions of Symptomatology.....	14
4. Boenninghausen's Totality.....	17
5. Dr. C.M.Boger's approach to Case Analysis.....	22
6. Totality according to Dr. H.A. Roberts.....	27
7. Peculiar, characteristic symptoms and keynotes.- Guernsey etc.....	29
8. Perceive the most uncommon (unusual) Peculiar Symptom.....	40
9. Take positive symptoms irrespective of the "drug picture".....	42
10. Totality of symptoms.....	44
11. Contribution of Dr. J.T. Kent to the advancement of Homoeopathy.....	46
12. Kent's Repertory - how to use it.....	52
13. What to do when strong mentals are not available.....	57
14. Why are particular i less important in remedy selection.....	62
15. State of disposition and mind chiefly determines selection.....	65

16.	Dr. M.L. Sehgal's "Rediscovery of Homoeopathy".....	82
17.	State of body - Effects of latent (chronic).....	89
	Infections (Miasms). - Understanding the Miasms
	- Psora, the hydraheaded Infections - Meeting
	the challenge - Tracing the link between the Infection and the remedy - Tyler on Nosodes -
	Stop-spot of Remedies - Symptoms of leading Nosodes - Illustrative cases.
18.	Remedy response - Second prescription
	Management of the case.....	123
19.	Conclusions and Plan for Action.....	133
20.	The Best Test of a Homoeopath.....	147*
	Appendix 'A' - Physical Generals.....	149
	Appendix 'B' - Peculiar Symptoms.....	153
	Appendix 'C' - Important Aphorisms from the Organon.....	154